Dear Friends:

Welcome to the University of Notre Dame and to the 39th annual Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition.

As a musician myself, I recognize the hard work and dedication that musicians invest in preparation for their performances, and I admire the Fischoff National Chamber Music Association for bringing together talented musicians from across the nation for spirited competitions.

Best wishes to all musicians in the 39th annual Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition.

Sincerely,

Richard G. Lugar

May 11, 2012

Greetings!

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the 39th Annual Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition at the University of Notre Dame. I am delighted you are here to participate in the nation’s largest chamber music competition.

The State of Indiana is grateful for the rich history of the Fischoff National Chamber Music Association and its commitment to young musicians. As a winner of the 2007 Indiana Governor’s Arts Award, Fischoff is a vital link in the development of musical excellence and the preservation of the chamber music culture.

We are proud to welcome and host all of the talented young people who are dedicated to the pursuit of excellence. I hope this will be an enriching and rewarding experience for the fine musicians, their families and friends and the distinguished instructors and jurors.

Best wishes to everyone at Fischoff as you celebrate your 39th Anniversary. Thank you for all you do to make a difference by inspiring lives through the world of music.

Enjoy your visit to our state and our Hoosier Hospitality!

Sincerely,

Mitch Daniels, Jr.
Governor

Dear Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition Participants and Guests,

On behalf of the Second Congressional District of Indiana, I welcome you to the 2012 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition.

For thirty-nine years, the Fischhoff National Chamber Music Association has offered young musicians the opportunity to demonstrate their considerable talent in this renowned competition. The Fischhoff competition preserves an art form that is a part of our musical heritage and encourages past and present participants to inspire and mentor others.

The cultural life of the Michiana area has been enriched by the continued influence of the Fischhoff Competition and we welcome the chance to once again benefit from this experience. We are honored to host young musicians from around the world who develop proficiency and maturity in a competition of international scope and professional prestige.

I hope this experience is one you will treasure. You will certainly touch many lives and create wonderful memories in this community through your music.

Congratulations and best wishes to all who will be competing.

Sincerely,

Congressman Joe Donnelly

Greetings!

As the 32nd Mayor of the City of South Bend, I am excited to offer a warm welcome to all attending the annual Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition, now in its 39th year.

The Fischhoff National Chamber Music Association was founded by Joseph E. Fischhoff and the South Bend Chamber of Music Society in 1973. Throughout the years, more than 5,000 young people have participated in the Fischhoff. This prestigious event is the only national chamber music organization that specifically provides a structure within which young musicians can share their skills through community concerts, school and Arts-in-Education residencies in the local schools. I applaud you for now being the largest chamber music competition.

While you are visiting South Bend, I invite you to explore the wonderful facilities and attractions that make our city the regional center for arts, culture, entertainment, sports and recreation. From the College Football Hall of Fame, to the Healthworks Kids' Museum, Studebaker National Museum, the Northern Indiana Center for History, the South Bend Museum of Art, and the Morris Performing Arts Center, you will find a great array of exhibits and events for all ages to enjoy.

You have worked hard to prepare for this competition; everyone here is already a winner. Once again welcome to South Bend. Please enjoy all the music being created, and please visit us again soon!

Sincerely,

Pete Buttigieg, Mayor
City of South Bend
Dear Friends,

Beautiful music is food for the soul. Welcome to the Fischoff, where you can get your fill. The Board of Directors of the Fischoff National Chamber Music Association is proud to bring you the 39th Annual Fischoff Competition. Here you will see brilliant young musicians stretching the boundaries of musical excellence in performances which awe our audience, taking the inspiration that this music has generated through the ages to new heights.

So please relax and enjoy this opportunity to experience the Fischoff, where the depth of the musicians’ effort and skill will reach the very core of all of you gathered here, satisfying your soul in ways nothing else can. It is our great privilege to be a part of this wonderful event and to share it with you. Enjoy!

Sincerely,

Timothy J. Maher
President

Spring of 1981 was my first Fischoff. It was a small competition with perhaps a dozen entries and only a few hundred dollars in prize money. The office staff consisted of a secretary at the convention center who spent some of her time for a couple of months a year to help it happen. However, there was a small committee of volunteers, spearheaded by Joe Fischoff, who felt the Competition was important and who were very dedicated to its survival and growth. Some of those people are still involved to this day, and like me, sometimes cannot believe what the Fischoff Competition has grown into. The original mission that Joe Fischoff and a few of his friends had was to provide an event that could have an impact on chamber music education. The Fischoff has grown into an arts organization of both regional and national importance that has been a key player in the growth of chamber music in pre-college, college and professional levels. In addition, the Fischoff impacts thousands of local school children who experience dynamic and creative chamber music presentations, most often given by ensembles from the current or past competitions. Throughout this transformation, I am proud that the original goals of Joe Fischoff and the other founding members have remained intact at the core of the organization.

To our audience, the wonderful people and organizations that help fund the Fischoff, the Fischoff Board and of course the amazing team of people who make this organization function so beautifully, I give my thanks for your engaged involvement and a plea for your continued support.

To the Performers: I urge you all to take as much as you can from this weekend. My colleagues and I take great care to make your experience here a positive one. Hopefully you will be one of the prize winning ensembles. But, there is so much you can do to learn and improve while you are here. Do so by enjoying your opportunity to perform, getting both written and verbal feedback from the jurors, listening to other ensembles in both the Junior and Senior Divisions to gain perspective on your own playing, and by getting to know other musicians who are here. Perhaps in the future you will be playing with someone you first met here. Ultimately, you may or may not agree with the difficult decisions the jury must make. Remember that even in your own ensembles you undoubtedly do not always agree with your colleagues. Playing your best is the only thing you can control. Enjoying yourself and staying focused on the music is the best way to achieve that.

Best of luck to all of you.

Thomas Rosenberg
Artistic Director

Cellist Thomas Rosenberg, Artistic Director of the Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition since 1981, is nationally known as a dynamic teacher, chamber music coach, and performer. He is on the faculties of Macalester and Carleton Colleges, the McNally Smith College of Music and maintains a busy private studio of pre-college cellists and chamber ensembles. He is a member of both the Schubert Piano Trio and The Isles Ensemble and is an extra musician in the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra and Minnesota Orchestra. He is recipient of the “Master Studio Teacher Award” from ASTA Minnesota, the McKnight Performing Artist Fellowship Award, Arts Educator of the Year from the Michiana Arts and Sciences Council, the 2007 Indiana Governor’s Arts Award (along with the Fischoff organization as a whole), top chamber music prizes at the Munich (Germany), Portsmouth (England), and Chicago’s ‘Discovery’ Competitions and is a three-time Naumburg Award finalist. Previously, he was a founding member of the highly acclaimed Chester String Quartet with whom he toured internationally for twenty years, made numerous recordings and was on the faculty of Indiana University South Bend from 1980-1998. He has performed and taught at many summer festivals including Aspen and Tanglewood and served as Associate Director and taught at “The Quartet Program.” Tom is a graduate of Oberlin and the Eastman School of Music where he was teaching assistant to both Paul Katz and Laurence Lesser. Other teachers include Richard Kapuscinski, Alan Harris, Alta Mayer, and for chamber music, members of the Budapest, Juilliard, Tokyo, Guarneri, and Cleveland Quartets.
How can the Fischoff ever thank Charlotte Ford enough for all that she did for the organization? Char, as her friends called her, was so dedicated to the idea of Fischoff that she was asked to become Fischoff’s only emeritus board member. The organization simply valued her wisdom, counsel and commitment to Fischoff and wanted to ensure that she would be part of its work for as long as she could. She had the singular belief that Fischoff was important to our community and the world, and relished the idea that it all started in her hometown of South Bend. She served on the board of directors for twenty-one years and was its president for two separate terms. Under her leadership, the Fischoff Competition not only grew, but flourished.

Above all, she loved Fischoff’s emphasis on education. She was so thrilled when the organization decided to step outside its comfort zone in 1995 and begin community outreach programs and residencies. She was delighted to see Fischoff’s remarkable musicians coming back into our community throughout the year to work with those who might not have the opportunity of hearing or seeing performances of this caliber. That is why she was an annual contributor to the Education Circle — a group of donors dedicated to supporting the educational initiatives of the Fischoff.

Burt Ford, Char’s husband, was devoted to good causes within our community and was particularly supportive of Char’s work with Fischoff. After he passed away in 2009, an anonymous donor honored Burt by underwriting one of Fischoff’s competition prizes. In like fashion, Char and her family honored Burt the following year and were poised to continue the practice when Char passed away suddenly.

Several years ago, Char and Burt established gift annuities with the Community Foundation of St. Joseph County that would benefit Fischoff in perpetuity after their deaths. In their infinite wisdom, they specifically set this up as an unrestricted fund so that Fischoff could use the annual interest stream in the best way possible. It was a wonderful thing to do and a very thoughtful way of doing it. This year, Burt and Char Ford will both be honored as the sponsors of the Senior String Division Silver Medal. We are deeply grateful for the generous dedication of the Ford family to the Fischoff.
Welcome to Notre Dame!

Dear Fischoff Competition Participants,

On behalf of the University of Notre Dame, I welcome you to the 36th Annual Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition. Notre Dame looks forward to hosting this wonderful event each year because the creation and performance of great music celebrates God’s gifts and represents another path to the universal truths we seek in our academic inquiry here.

Since its start in 1973, the Fischoff Competition has grown into the nation’s largest chamber music competition. Over the years, more than 5,700 young musicians from many universities and diverse nationalities have participated in this competition. The event helps to preserve and advance the chamber music culture in our country, reaching more than a thousand children and adults in our local community and bringing even more visitors to our state.

I congratulate you for being selected to participate in this year’s Fischoff Competition. I am certain those who have supported your musical pursuits recognize your achievement in making it here. I wish you even more success in your bright future.

THE FISCHOFF NATIONAL
CHAMBER MUSIC ASSOCIATION

Fischoff’s Mission
Inspiring lives through breathtaking performances

HISTORY OF THE FISCHOFF

In 1973, Joseph E. Fischoff and fellow members of the South Bend Chamber Music Society sought an innovative way of encouraging young people to pursue chamber music study and performance. The idea of a competition arose, and that first year, six ensembles participated.

Little did the society members know how their idea would grow. Today, still at home in South Bend, Indiana, the Fischoff Competition is the largest chamber music competition in the world. Each year, an average of 125 ensembles, representing 22 nationalities, enter in either the wind or string categories of three to six performers. Fischoff is the only national chamber music competition with both senior divisions (ages 18-35) and a junior division (age 18 and younger). Since its founding, more than 5,700 musicians have participated, many of whom have gone on to distinguished careers in music performance and education.

Committed to music education, the Fischoff uniquely partners with competition alumni to bring free, innovative music programs directly to children in their own schools and community centers. Known as the Fischoff Arts-in-Education Residency, these programs have served nearly 56,000 community children since 1995 and reach more than 6,000 underserved and at-risk young people every year. Additionally, Fischoff offers several programs to support and encourage area high school-aged musicians.

JOSEPH E. FISCHOFF

Joe Fischoff loved music, especially chamber music. Born in Hungary in 1907, his family settled in South Bend where he graduated from South Bend High School in 1925. As a young man, he simultaneously attended Philadelphia’s Wharton School of Business and the Curtis Institute of Music. In 1929, he graduated from Wharton with a degree in Economics while studying viola with Louis Bailley and chamber music at Curtis. When the first orchestra was started at Curtis, conductor Leopold Stokowski invited Joe to audition, and he played in the viola section.

While he did not professionally pursue music, he played chamber music in his home every week for as long as he could continue to play. In the furniture business by trade, Joe was a musician at heart and loved to encourage young people to continue the art of chamber music through the Fischoff Competition.

As the competition grew, so did the temptation to become like all other competitions. He quietly insisted that this competition be different. It was to be founded in education and mentoring. His goal became ours—to provide a positive and constructive experience for all musicians. Because of him, Fischoff not only seeks out excellence, but also seeks the education of as many people as possible to be chamber musicians, to listen to chamber music, and most of all, to love chamber music.

The Fischoff Staff

Ann Divine, Executive Director, received her undergraduate degree in Music Education from Indiana University South Bend and her Master of Arts degree from Andrews University. She taught music classes at area colleges and universities for twenty years. Ms. Divine is a member of the Performing Arts Advisory Council, University of Notre Dame, the Community Advisory Council of WNIT Public Television, and the steering committee of Bike the Bend.

Miki Strabley, Competition Director, joined Fischoff in August 2000. She earned her undergraduate degrees in English Literature and Political Science at Saint Mary’s College. She holds Master’s Degrees in Education from Indiana University South Bend and Nonprofit Administration from the University of Notre Dame. Miki plays the trumpet in Notre Dame’s University and Summer Bands.

Pam O’Rourke, a long-time friend and volunteer of Fischoff, joined the staff as Education Director in July, 2004. With a background in community relations and preschool education, she has also been active in community theatre and the arts. Pam attended Eastern Montana College.

Anna Sanford Mlodzik, Director of Marketing, received her undergraduate degree in Humanistic Studies from Saint Mary’s College and her Master of Nonprofit Administration degree from the University of Notre Dame. She began working with Fischoff in 2006.

Amanda Van Haute Slagle is a 2001 graduate of Valparaiso University with a degree in Music Business. Ms. Slagle has been with Fischoff since 2001, and has worked for several violin shops including Shar Music in Ann Arbor, MI and Terra Nova Violins in San Antonio, TX. She remains an active freelance violinist and violist.

Carrie Lehman graduated from Spring Arbor University with a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration. Ms. Lehman recently resigned her position as Portfolio Administrator to start her own business, Hazel Street Designs, in Chicago. She has returned to assist with the Competition weekend for 17 years.

Tessa Bysong earned her bachelor’s degree in Business and Political Science from the University of Notre Dame in 2006. She received her Master of Business Administration degree from INSEAD business school, studying in Paris and Singapore. She now lives in Chicago and works for the management consulting firm Bain & Co.
Fischoff National Advisory Council

The Fischoff National Advisory Council advises the Fischoff Board of Directors on matters of a national scope. Each member brings a unique perspective on the nature of the arts in America.

Wu Han, piano, ranks among the most esteemed and influential classical musicians in the world today. She appears regularly in many prestigious venues across the United States, Europe, and the Far East as both soloist and chamber musician, and has toured extensively as a duo pianist with cellist David Finckel. Wu Han and David Finckel serve as Artistic Directors of The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center and Music@Menlo, the premier chamber music festival in Silicon Valley now celebrating its tenth anniversary. In addition, they serve as Artistic Directors of Chamber Music Today, a festival held annually in Seoul, South Korea. In recognition of their artistic excellence and achievement in the arts, Wu Han and David Finckel were named Musical America’s 2012 Musicians of the Year. In recent seasons, Wu Han has established residencies at Wigmore Hall, the Mecklenburg Festival in Germany, and has appeared on PBS’s Live From Lincoln Center. For many years, she taught alongside the late Isaac Stern at the Jerusalem Music Center and was instrumental in establishing chamber music training workshops in Korea and Taiwan. Wu Han’s wide-ranging musical activities include the founding of ArtistLed, an innovative musician-run recording label.

Massimo Mercelli is an internationally acclaimed concert flautist. He studied with Andre Jaunet and Maxence Larrieu, and at just nineteen years of age, he became the first flute at Teatro La Fenice in Venice. Mr. Mercelli subsequently won the Premio Francesco Cilea, the Concorso Internazionale Giornate Musicali and the Concorso Internazionale di Stresa. He has performed as a soloist in some of the world’s most prestigious concert halls and important festivals. Mr. Mercelli is also the founder and artistic director of the Emilia Romagna Festival in Italy. He has been a member of the directive committee of European Festival Association since 2001, and was elected vice president in April 2011. In addition to the Fischoff, he has served as a juror for prestigious international competitions such as Jean-Pierre Rampal of Paris, the Geneva Competition, and the concert Artist Guild of New York. In 2012, Orange Mountain Music will release a CD of Mr. Mercelli’s interpretations of Philip Glass’s chamber music for flute. Also in 2012, Massimo Mercelli will perform in China, South America, and throughout Europe.

Anna Thompson serves as the executive director of the DeBartolo Performing Arts Center and fills the endowed Judd & Mary Lou Leighton Director of the Performing Arts at the University of Notre Dame. Thompson came to Notre Dame in July of 2007, after serving at the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John’s University (MN), and as an arts administrator in Indianapolis. In addition to current oversight of all administration and finances for the DeBartolo, Ms. Thompson specializes as a curator of performing arts programming and develops interdisciplinary visiting artist residency projects with the Academy. Thompson has commissioned the first new works in music, dance and theater for Notre Dame to tour nationally and internationally bearing the name of the university. Thompson has commissioned orchestral and chamber works by David Ott, Bruce Adolphe, Eric Ewazen, Simone Shaheen, Wu Man, Terry Riley, Tarik O’Regan, Stephen Prutsman, Steven Mackey, and Augusta Reed Thomas. Thompson is a frequent lecturer and presenter at regional, national and international performing arts conferences. She received her bachelor’s degree from Albion College and her master’s from Western Michigan University with additional studies at Butler University and the University of Notre Dame.

Heidi Castleman, Professor of Viola at the Juilliard School of Music, teaches at both pre-college and graduate levels. She has taught at the Cleveland Institute of Music, the Eastman School of Music, New England Conservatory, SUNY Purchase, Rice University and Philadelphia Musical Academy. Ms. Castleman was also co-founder and viola faculty of the Quartet Program (1970 to 1990). Since 2001, she has worked with students, ages 12 – 18, at the Perlman Music Program. A founding trustee of Chamber Music America, Ms. Castleman served as President from 1983 to 1987. She also served on the board of the American String Teachers Association (ASTA) and currently is on the board of the Perlman Music Program. She is the recipient of the ASTA Ohio “Teacher of the Year” award (1994), the Chamber Music America Richard J. Bogomolny National Service Award (2001) and the national Artist-Teacher of the Year Award by ASTA with NSOA in 2002. In 2004, Ms. Castleman received the Maurice W. Riley Viola Award at the American Viola Society Congress for Distinguished Contributions to the Viola, and in 2006, was awarded an Honorary Doctorate degree from the University of Montreal.
As cellist of the Cleveland Quartet for more than twenty-six years, Paul Katz has appeared in more than 2,500 concerts on four continents and made 70 recordings which earned 11 Grammy nominations and two Grammy Awards. The members of the Cleveland Quartet were the first classical artists ever to appear on the Grammy Awards telecast. Katz studied with Gregor Piatigorsky, Bernard Greenhouse, Janos Starker, and Leonard Rose. In September 2001, he joined the faculty of the New England Conservatory of Music where he teaches cello and mentors a training program for young professional string quartets. In 2001, he was awarded Chamber Music America’s highest honor, the National Service Award, given for a lifetime of distinguished service to the field of chamber music. The American String Teachers Association named Paul Katz their “Artist-Teacher of the Year 2003,” and Indiana University awarded him its coveted Chevalier du Violoncelle for distinguished achievements and contributions to the world of cello playing and teaching.

Vincent D. Rougeau became Dean of Boston College Law School on July 1, 2011. He previously served as a professor of law at the University of Notre Dame, and as a member of the Fischhoff Board of Directors. He received his A.B. magna cum laude from Brown University, and his J.D. from Harvard Law School. An expert in Catholic social thought, Dean Rougeau’s most recent book, Christians in the American Empire: Faith and Citizenship in the New World Order, was released in 2008 by Oxford University Press. Dean Rougeau’s teaching interests are in contract and real estate law, as well as in law and religion. He has taught first year contracts, real estate transactions, and seminars in Catholic social teaching and immigration and multiculturalism. He is a member of the bar in Maryland and the District of Columbia. Before entering the academy, he practiced law at the Washington, DC office of Morrison & Foerster from 1988-1991. Prior to his arrival at Boston College, Dean Rougeau was a Senior Fellow at the Contextual Theology Center (“CTC”) in London. Dean Rougeau blogs regularly for Contending Modernities.

Dennis Bamber received his Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees in music from Indiana University. Following a career as both teacher and performer, Mr. Bamber founded the Woodwind & Brasswind. Over the course of his 25+ years of leadership, the company became one of the most successful retailers of instruments in the world. In addition, Mr. Bamber was a founder of WoodBrass.com, one of Europe’s most successful companies. He was majority partner with the company for over 10 years. Recently, Mr. Bamber started a new business called Musicfactorydirect.com, offering high quality instruments of all types directly from the factory to the musician. In addition, he is the owner of a specialty line of saxophones, La Sax, which are endorsed by some of the country’s finest performers.

John Haynes is Executive Director and CEO of a new $160 million, 2,300-seat performing arts center under development in Bellevue, Washington, where he recently announced a $25 million naming gift from the Tateuchi Foundation and the completion of architecture, engineering, and site acquisition. Mr. Haynes was formerly the Judd and Mary Lou Leighton Director for the Performing Arts at the University of Notre Dame and founding executive director of the Marie P. DeBartolo Center for the Performing Arts. He serves as the current President of the Western Arts Alliance. Mr. Haynes has served as the chief executive of large cultural institutions in Minneapolis and San Diego, and has been active as a national advocate for public arts funding, an NEA panelist, a frequent lecturer on the role of cultural institutions in community building and economic development, and a cultural consultant to a variety of private and public entities, including the People’s Republic of China. His early career included more than a decade as a program executive for CBS Television Network in New York and Viacom in Beverly Hills, CA.

Listen. Learn. Love.
Introduced in 1995, the Fischoff Residency Program is dedicated to providing interactive music programs for underserved children and at-risk youth, and early arts intervention programs for children ages five through ten. Residency programs take on many forms, including Fischoff’s signature S.A.M. I Am (Stories & Music) programs, music workshops and master classes. Residency artists are selected from Fischoff Competition alumni who have proven themselves as both capable educators and extraordinary musicians. We are pleased to bring these talented ensembles to the region to mentor children and share their deep passion for chamber music.

As the inaugural winner of the Fischoff Educator Award, Axiom Brass presented a wonderfully rich Arts-in-Education Residency for Fischoff in November. This award recognizes the educational outreach work of Fischoff Competition alumni who have demonstrated outstanding and imaginative programming for children and youth while successfully building a performance career in chamber music. Axiom Brass lived up to this tall order by presenting public concerts, master classes, and school programs for underserved children, including Fischoff’s signature S.A.M. I Am (Stories & Music) for more than 2,000 children and youth. In addition, Fischoff and Axiom Brass collaborated on a commissioned brass quintet work, Celestial Suite, by composer James Stephenson, for the unique setting known as the Digital Visualization Theater at the University of Notre Dame. These inter-disciplinary collaborations and performances throughout the community help fulfill Fischoff’s focus on education through chamber music.

“Dear Fischoff Association: Our class would like to thank you for bringing the Axiom Brass Quintet to our school. We really enjoyed the show! The best part was when the French horn player galloped on the stick horse. Thank you again for your generosity. Sincerely, Miss Seltzer’s 3rd Grade Class.”

“P.S. Do you put soup in the tuba mute?”

S.A.M. I Am (Stories & Music) introduces great books to children through musical reenactments. Fischoff Residency ensembles use their instruments to represent the story’s characters, emotions and ideas, integrating music, art, storytelling, drama and imagination. It is a highly effective learning approach aimed at children ages 5–10.

“I was touched that these world-renowned musicians were playing so beautifully for our children, and speaking to the children so respectfully and with so much joy.” — teacher

“I thought it was great. My favorite part was the song that went really fast. I’ve never seen a concert like that up close. The musicians were really good.” — student

“It was so important for our children to hear the explanation about playing together, both how they gesture and cue each other, and how they must communicate and practice together and compromise.” — teacher

THE 2011–2012 DOUBLE GOLD TOURS

Fischoff was pleased to send our 2011 Gold Medal Winners from the Senior Division on tour this past fall. The Double Gold Tour showcased the Calidore String Quartet and the City of Tomorrow as they presented concerts and educational outreach programs to more than 4,200 children, youth and adults throughout the Midwest. These amazing ensembles were tremendous ambassadors for Fischoff.

The Calidore String Quartet, winner of both the Gold and Grand Prize Medals, performed three concerts, five master classes, and four community programs. These included performances of Fischoff’s flagship S.A.M. I Am (Stories & Music) program, which reinforces the importance of reading through the power of music for young readers, ages 5–10.

A Note from Grand Prize Winner, the Calidore Quartet

Here we are, back in LA catching up on school work, orchestra parts, and solo rep. Calidore Quartet has been taking a bit of a breather, but having just tasted the lifestyle of the pros, we can’t wait to get going again. The flurry of performances we’ve given during the Fischoff tour has kicked our enthusiasm for quartet playing into hyper-drive.

This tour was an incredible journey from the moment we began our first outreach concert at Liberty Elementary to our last words on WFMT before piling into the car to head to Midway airport. We took it day by day, always knowing that we were being looked after each step of the way. They were busy days but when each one came to a close we didn’t want to be any closer to it all ending. Each one of us has grown tremendously as musicians because of the abundance of experiences we were given through Fischoff’s Winners Tour.

Every time we stepped out to perform, whether it was a small gymnasium or a 900 seat hall, we walked as artists with something to express on our instruments together. Thank you for providing those opportunities. Thank you for laying the foundation for us to build our art on. Our exposure to a wide variety of venues has changed us as a quartet in so many positive ways. We’ve gained much confidence both as a group and as individuals from just that one week of performances.

The Calidore String Quartet will always keep the Fischoff experience close to heart. As we continue on, we will build on the generosity, kindness and dedication that has been bestowed on us from the Fischoff Competition. We appreciate all that the organization has done for the quartet and hope that our relationship lasts for a lifetime.

With sincerest gratitude,
The Calidore String Quartet

Summer 2013: Emilia Romagna Festival

DeBARTOLO Performing Arts Center

Emilia Romagna Festival

Fischoff and the Emilia Romagna Festival have formed a collaboration that makes it possible for the Competition’s Grand Prize Winner to participate in the 2013 summer music festival. Concerts are presented throughout the Emilia Romagna region of Italy in unique venues such as historic buildings, great homes, churches and even courtyards. The tour provides wonderful opportunities, experiences and connections for these talented young chamber musicians.

In memory of Judy Simcox
This past February, we lost a dear friend and faithful Fischoff volunteer. Judy Simcox was an amazing woman with a tremendous dedication to Fischoff. A former board member in the organization's early years, our earliest records show that she has been a steadfast volunteer since at least 1995. She performed every conceivable Competition volunteer shift until settling in most recently as a Performance Supervisor for the Senior Winds on Friday afternoons. From 2005–2012, Judy also served as a valuable member of the St. Joseph County Artist-of-the-Month Screening Committee. Her cheerful outlook and vivacious nature will be dearly missed.
Fischoff’s Mentoring Project provides an opportunity for motivated regional high school chamber ensembles to receive consistent professional coaching at no charge. Fischoff is pleased to underwrite coaching fees for seven ensembles during the 2011–12 school year. In addition to coaching sessions, ensembles are invited to participate in masterclasses and a public recital. Ensembles are also encouraged to perform at public venues such as retirement communities, libraries, community centers and elementary schools.

The Peer Ambassadors for Chamber Music (PACMan) Program takes place on Friday of the Competition weekend. It involves our youngest competitors—ensembles from the Junior Division. This year, our carefully chosen junior ensembles will be invited into area classrooms to present informal performance-workshops for second to fourth graders. The Program's purpose is to present to young learners a friendly and "real" introduction to chamber music. Since Fischoff juniors are also in school, they make perfect role models for elementary school children who look up to and identify with older students. The performance level of Fischoff junior ensembles creates an excitement that is a powerful mentoring tool in persuading young children to consider joining their own school or community band and orchestra programs. The PACMan program has been generously endowed by Barbara Warner.

PACMan Hosts and Hostesses:

How the Jury Selects the Winner

How does a juror make his or her selection of the “best” ensemble from all the competitors? It can be a Herculean task. The distinguished jurors of the 2012 Competition do have some formulas on which they can rely. However, their decisions are guided primarily by their own musical integrity and experience as performers and instructors. They listen for interpretation—tempi and dynamics, ensemble performance—balance within the ensemble, blend, and unity of the members; technical accuracy—rhythm and intonation; and overall performance—poise, artistic impression, and expression.

Jurors individually rank the ensembles in each division. These rankings are combined, then averaged for each ensemble to arrive at a group’s composite ranking. Rankings are a good method for determining the prize winners, but the real value for these young musicians comes from the written comments of the jurors. The juror evaluations are distributed to all performing ensembles at the completion of the Competition. From these written comments, the musicians gain valuable and constructive feedback, which is intended to stimulate their growth as artists and ensembles.

Identifying conflict of interest issues is very important to the integrity of the competition. Conflicts of interest between jurors and ensembles or any individuals within an ensemble are carefully identified and handled appropriately.

History of the Competition

South Bend is proud to be the home of one of the nation’s premier musical events, the renowned Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition. Founded in 1973 by Joseph E. Fischoff and members of the South Bend Chamber Music Society, this prestigious event was originally intended to encourage emerging instrumental chamber musicians and provide a national forum for their talents. In that first year, six ensembles participated.

Today, the original mission remains constant and has broadened to include Senior String and Wind Divisions as well as a Junior Division for musicians age 18 and under. It is the largest chamber music competition in the world. The scope of Fischoff has also grown by utilizing the talents of these amazing young musicians through community outreach programs and by designing Arts-in-Education Residencies that bring Fischoff alumni as well as other chamber music ensembles back to the community for outreach programs.

Alumni

Since its founding in 1973, the Fischoff has become the largest chamber music competition in the world. As a result, thousands of outstanding musicians claim the Fischoff as a defining musical experience in their lives. To these alumni, we wish to offer the opportunity to stay connected with the Fischoff, and to benefit from ongoing relationships with lifetime friends and chamber musicians, venue hosts, presenters and educators. If you are a past participant in the Fischoff competition, we invite you to stay connected with us online at www.fischoff.org, facebook.com/TheFischoff and twitter.com/Fischoff.

Marilyn McDonald, a founding member of the Smithsonian Quartet and the Castle Trio, currently plays in the Axelrod Quartet. The Axelrod Quartet is currently in residence at the Smithsonian Institution, and was named for the donor of the decorated Stradivarius instruments on which the quartet performs. Ms. McDonald has toured world-wide as a chamber musician, in repertoire ranging from baroque to contemporary. She has appeared at Alice Tully Hall, the Metropolitan Museum, the Frick Gallery, the Caramoor, Utrecht and Mostly Mozart Festivals, Wigmore Hall, Disney Hall, Ravinia and the Concertgebouw. Concertmaster positions include Boston Baroque and the Peninsula Music Festival. A pupil of Angel Reyes and Josef Gingold, she was awarded the Performer’s Certificate at Indiana University. She is well known for her interest in performing on historical instruments, and her former students in this area occupy positions of importance worldwide. Recent students occupy positions in the Boston and Houston Symphonies, in several active string quartets and have been international prize winners in the Locatelli, Berkeley Bach and Naumburg Competitions as well as the Stulberg and Fischhoff Competitions. She has been artist-in-residence at Boston University and has held visiting professorships at the Eastman School of Music and at Indiana University. She teaches each summer at the Oberlin Baroque Performance Institute and has been honored with the “Excellence in Teaching” award at Oberlin, where she is professor of violin. Ms. McDonald’s recordings are heard on the Deutsche Harmonia Mundi, Virgin Classics, Decca, Gasparo, Smithsonian and Telarc labels.

Violist Jonah Sirota was third prize winner in the 2006 Naumburg Viola Competition and has won concerto competitions at both Rice University and at the Juilliard School. Mr. Sirota is violist of the Chira String Quartet, known for their “Chamber Music in Any Chamber” performances in and outside of the concert hall. With the Chira Quartet, he serves as Artist-in-Residence at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, under the title of Assistant Research Professor. In addition to his teaching at Nebraska, he and his quartet colleagues served a three-year post as Blodgett Artists-in-Residence at Harvard University starting in the fall of 2008. Additionally, Mr. Sirota teaches at the Greenwood Music Camp, and at the Red River Chamber Music Festival. Mr. Sirota has studied with Martha Katz, Roberto Diaz, and Samuel Rhodes, among others. He graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelors of Music degree from Rice University, and then received both a Master of Music degree and an Artist Diploma in String Quartet Studies from the Juilliard School. He also studied aesthetic education and audience engagement at Juilliard with master teacher Eric Booth. In addition, he writes a travel blog for the Journal of the American Viola Society. As a viola professor, Mr. Sirota specializes in highlighting awareness of the body-mind connection as it applies to technique and musicianship. He has used his own successful experiences in fighting performance-related injuries to help students fix injuries, reduce tension in their playing, reduce fear in their approach to performing and career, and become engaging musicians and artists.

Praised by the New York Times for his “catlike ease” at the keyboard and hailed as a “superb pianist” by the Washington Post, American pianist Julio Elizalde is gaining widespread recognition for his musical depth and creative insight. Mr. Elizalde is the pianist of the New York City based New Trio, which emerged as one of the nation’s most promising young ensembles after winning the grand prizes at the 2008 Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition and the 2007 Coleman National Chamber Music Competition. In 2010, the trio was awarded the Harvard Musical Association’s prestigious Arthur W. Foote Prize for outstanding young musicians and ensembles. Mr. Elizalde has participated at numerous music festivals including the Music Academy of the West, Kneisel Hall, Taos, Yellow Barn, the Olympic Music Festival, and Caramoor. As an educator, Mr. Elizalde has given piano and chamber music master classes at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, and served on the faculties of the Manchester Music Festival and the Yellow Barn Young Artist Program. He was recently named the co-artistic director of the Olympic Music Festival in Quilcene, WA. Mr. Elizalde earned his Bachelor of Music degree with honors at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and both his Master of Music and Doctor of Musical Arts degrees from the Juilliard School. He has studied chamber music with Emanuel Ax, Seymour Lipkin, Charles Neidich, Pamela Frank, and the Weilerstein Trio. This fall, Mr. Elizalde will serve as an assistant instructor of piano at Juilliard for the class of Robert McDonald.
Charles Geyer began trumpet lessons at age five, followed by participation in the highly esteemed Joliet, Illinois Band program from age seven through ten. Radio performances in Peoria, Illinois preceded the start of his professional career at the age of 14. Mr. Geyer received his Master of Music from Northwestern University. While attending Northwestern, he performed as Principal Trumpet with Chicago Lyric Opera, and joined the Chicago Symphony Orchestra following his senior year. During his twelve years with the CSO, Mr. Geyer was Principal with the Grant Park Symphony Summer Orchestra. He was Trumpet Professor at the Eastman School of Music and member of the Eastman Brass from 1980–1998. A founding member of the Chicago Brass Quintet, Mr. Geyer also organized and performed in concerts with the Chicago Symphony Brass Ensemble. Currently he performs as soloist with Chicago’s Music of the Baroque ensemble and as Co-Principal Trumpet in the summers with the Grand Teton Music Festival Orchestra in Jackson, Wyoming. He is in demand as a recitalist and presents master classes regularly in this country as well as Japan, Italy, Spain and Canada. Mr. Geyer has recorded with the Eastman Brass, Music of the Baroque, Chicago Symphony and Houston Symphony Orchestras, Contemporary Chamber Players of Chicago, Music for Two Trumpets and Organ with Barbara Butler, and with Clarion Voice with Barbara Butler, and the Music of the Baroque Orchestra. He began as Professor of Trumpet at Northwestern University in 1998. Geyer studied with Herbert Stoskopf, Adolph Herseth, and Vincent Cichowicz.

Fischoff Winners Recognized on National Public Radio (NPR)

The Fischoff is pleased to enjoy a collaborative relationship with From the Top, the preeminent showcase for young musicians. Through award-winning PBS and NPR programs, online media, a national tour of live events, and education programs, From the Top shares the stories and performances of pre-collegiate classical musicians with millions each week. Each program provides a compelling and entertaining window into the world of a diverse group of young people, who pursue life with passion, determination, and joy. In addition to scholarship monies, the First Prize winner in the Fischoff Competition Junior Division is featured on a From the Top radio broadcast.

First-Round Screening Committees

The Fischoff Competition is very grateful for the thoughtful and knowledgeable work of the screening committees. Each member is selected for their professional background in the field. Their job is not an easy one! They have the daunting task of selecting the forty-eight ensembles that will participate in The Fischoff and they do this with the utmost integrity and enthusiasm. Thank you to our talented screening committee members.

Junior Division Screening Committee

Shane Kim, violinist, is currently in his seventh season as a replacement violinist with the Minnesota Orchestra and Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra. He holds an undergraduate degree from the University of Toronto and a Master of Music degree and Artist Diploma from the Yale School of Music. This September, Shane will return to his hometown of Toronto to begin his first season with the Toronto Symphony.

Mina Fisher, cellist, manages and curates programs for the Bakken Trio, in residence at the MacPhail Center for Music. She holds degrees from Indiana University and studied at the Hochschule für Musik in Vienna.

Merilee Klemp, oboist, is an Associate Professor of Music at Augsburg College and maintains an oboe studio at Carleton College. She holds degrees from Augsburg College, University of Minnesota and Eastman School of Music.

Jill Dawe, pianist, is a native of Newfoundland, Canada, and a graduate of Eastman School of Music (M.M. & D.M.A.). She has taught on the faculties of the Chautauqua Institute, Oberlin Conservatory, and Lenoir-Rhyne College before making Augsburg College her teaching home.
Joel Smirnoff is President of the Cleveland Institute of Music, where he holds the Mary Elizabeth Callahan President’s Chair. A long-time member of the Juilliard String Quartet (JSQ), he served as first violin from 1997–2009. Founded in 1947, the JSQ has become a living American legend and won four GRAMMY Awards. In 2011, the Quartet was awarded a Lifetime Achievement Grammy Award. Mr. Smirnoff attended the University of Chicago and The Juilliard School and was a member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra for six years. Second Prize-winner in the International American Music Competition in 1983, he made his New York recital debut in 1985 at Carnegie’s Weill Recital Hall on the Emerging Artists series, and at Town Hall as part of the Midtown Masters series. He served as Head of String Studies at the Tanglewood Music Center during the late 1990s and has been on the faculty of Tanglewood since 1983. Additionally, he has served on the juries of the Naumburg and Indianapolis Violin Competitions. In Europe, Mr. Smirnoff has conducted the Norwegian Chamber Orchestra and a European tour with the Basel Sinfonietta and Charles Rosen as soloist in the Elliott Carter Piano Concerto. Mr. Smirnoff has led both the Juilliard Symphony and the Juilliard Orchestra in concert. Mr. Smirnoff also plays jazz, performing frequently as improvising soloist with Tony Bennett. His solos were featured on the GRAMMY Award-winning CD Tony Bennett Sings Ellington Hot and Cool.

Pianist Anne Epperson enjoys a distinguished career as a performer, recording artist, teacher and clinician. She is active as a consultant and advisor in the development of collaborative piano programs nationally and internationally. Ms. Epperson studied at the University of Southern California, the Juilliard School, and the University of California, Los Angeles. From 1980–89 she toured the U.S. as pianist with the Canterbury Trio. She has recorded for Vanguard, Musical Heritage Society, Nonesuch, Centaur, Koch International and Claves and has produced and edited recordings for Nonesuch and Azica. In 2008, Ms. Epperson inaugurated the Collaborative Piano Department at the University of Texas at Austin’s Butler School of Music, where she currently serves as Professor. Previously, she was Professor of Collaborative Piano at the University of Colorado at Boulder’s College of Music, where she created and developed a new graduate degree program. Previous faculty positions include the University of California – Santa Barbara, the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara, the Cleveland Institute of Music, the University of Illinois and the North Carolina School of the Arts. Since 2007, Ms. Epperson has also been a member of the artist faculty at the Colorado College Summer Music Festival. She has been a guest performer and coach at festivals nationwide, including Sarasota Music Festival and the International Festival – Institute at Round Top. In addition to the Fischoff, Ms. Epperson has been juror for the Walter W. Naumburg Foundation competition and the New Orleans International Piano Competition.

Michael Reynolds has been the cellist of the Muir String Quartet since its inception in 1979. As both a soloist and chamber musician, Mr. Reynolds has performed nearly 2,000 concerts throughout North America, Europe and the Far East. With the Muir Quartet, he won first prize at the Evian Competition, the 1981 Naumberg Award, two Grand Prix du Disques, the Gramophone Award, a Grammy nomination and a Grammy award, and garnered international acclaim for the PBS broadcast, “In Performance at The White House” for President and Mrs. Reagan. He received his professional training at the Curtis Institute of Music, where he was a student of David Soyer and Martita Casals, continuing with Karen Tuttle and George Neikrug and also studied at Yale University. Upcoming recordings include the Muir Quartet performing the Berg String Quartet Op. 3, Kreisler Quartet and Schulhoff’s 5 Pieces for String Quartet, the Beethoven Clarinet Trio (after the Septet) and the Zemlinsky Trio with clarinetist Richard Stoltzman and pianist Judith Stillman. Mr. Reynolds has taught at Boston University’s College of Fine Arts since 1983. He is co-founder and Executive/Artistic Director of Classics for Kids Foundation. He also is Artistic Director of Rockport Fall Foliage, and the Fredericksburg Festival of the Arts in Virginia, and he directs the Muir Quartet’s Emerging Quartets and Composers program at the Deer Valley Festival in Utah every summer. Mr. Reynolds has also served on the faculties of New England Conservatory, Rutgers University, the University of Utah, and UC Santa Cruz. He plays a cello by Giuseppi Grancino, circa 1690.
Carol Wincenc is one of the most respected and acclaimed flutists performing today. Recent appearances have included performances of Christopher Rouse’s Flute Concerto with the Rockford Symphony (IL), the Santa Rosa Symphony (CA), and ProMusica Columbus. In the past two seasons, she has performed with the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center. In the summer of 2007, Ms. Wincenc received the Distinguished Alumni Award from the Brevard Music Center and inaugurated the new Barrere Flute Studio at the Chautauqua Institution. Ms. Wincenc is flutist with the New York Woodwind Quintet. She has collaborated with the Guarneri, Emerson, and Tokyo string quartets; performed with sopranos Jessye Norman and Elly Ameling, pianist Emanuel Ax; and cellist Yo-Yo Ma. She was nominated for a Grammy Award for the 2005 Naxos recording of works by Yehudi Wyner with Richard Stoltzman and other renowned colleagues. Professor of flute at both The Juilliard School of Music and Stony Brook University, Ms. Wincenc often serves as a juror for other prestigious competitions, including, in 2009, the Walter W. Naumburg Solo Flute Competition. As a teenager she studied with Italian virtuoso Severino Gazzelloni and Robert Willoughby at Oberlin. She also studied with legendary French flute master Marcel Moyse at the Marlboro Music Festival. Post-graduate studies were at the Manhattan School of Music and at The Juilliard School under Arthur Lora. Ms. Wincenc was First Prize Winner of the Walter W. Naumburg Solo Flute Competition in 1978.

After studying at the Curtis Institute of Music, Carl Lenthe served as the principal trombonist with the Bavarian State Opera in Munich (1977–1994) and the Bamberg Symphony (1994–1998). He has appeared with the Berlin Philharmonic, the Munich Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Chicago Symphony, the Boston Symphony, and others. In 1998, he returned to the United States to accept a position as professor of trombone at Indiana University’s Jacobs School of Music, in which capacity he continues to serve today. As a trombone soloist, Mr. Lenthe won first prize with special distinction at the international music competition “Prague Spring.” He has appeared as a soloist with the Leipzig Gewandhaus Orchestra, the Prague Symphony, and the Bamberg Symphony. He is an active performer on alto, tenor, and bass trombone, euphonium, and bass trumpet. Mr. Lenthe’s chamber music activities include tours and recordings with Summit Brass and arranging, publishing, and performing of various brass chamber and solo literature. His most recent CD is titled The Audition Window (Summit Records DCD 354). Lenthe has arranged music for a variety of trombone ensembles, and is working closely with the BaS Company of Germany to design a line of professional trombones.

A chamber artist of unusual sensitivity and range, David Jolley has frequently collaborated with such groups as the Kalichstein-Laredo-Robinson Trio, the Guarneri Quartet, the American String Quartet, the Beaux Arts Trio, Musicians from Marlboro, and the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center. Jolley is currently a member of the virtuoso wind quintet Windscape; the Trio Valtorn, with violinist Ida Kavalian and pianist Gilles Vonsattel; and Trio 101–New York, with trumpeter Joe Burgstaller and trombonist Haim Avitsur. Jolley was for five years a member of the Fleisher-Jolley-Tree-O, with violinist Michael Tree and pianist Leon Fleisher. He was also a founding member, now emeritus, of the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra, with whom he toured widely and made over two dozen recordings for the Deutsche Grammophon label. Jolley’s keen interest in enlarging the solo horn literature has led to the composition of many new works for him, including Ellen Taaffe Zwilich’s “Concerto,” which Jolley premiered with Orpheus at Carnegie Hall. Other memorable works composed for Jolley include “Twilight Music” by John Harbison, “Dust and Shiver” by George Tsontakis, and George Perle’s “Duos for Horn and String Quartet,” premiered by Jolley and the Orion String Quartet at Alice Tully Hall. He most recently premiered the “Concerto for Horn” by Lawrence Dillon with the Carolina Chamber Orchestra. Jolley has six solo recordings under the Arabesque label, including Mozart Concerti and Strauss Concerti with the Israel Sinfonietta. Jolley is on the faculty of the University of North Carolina School of the Arts, Mannes College of Music, and Queens College-CUNY.

SENIOR WIND DIVISION SCREENING COMMITTEE

Bryan Polacek, saxophone, is Director of Bands at Merit School of Music in Chicago. His ensemble, the Lithium Saxophone Quartet, won the 2000 Fischoff Competition Senior Wind Division Gold Medal. Bryan is a graduate of Bowling Green State University.

Barbara Drapcho, clarinet, performs with Quintet Attacca, the Chicago Arts Orchestra and the New Philharmonic, and is on the faculty at the Merit School of Music, the Music Institute of Chicago, and Lake Forest College. She received her Bachelors and Masters Degrees from Northwestern University.

Jeremiah Frederick, horn, is a Chicago freelance musician and a member of Quintet Attacca, the 2002 Fischoff Competition Grand Prize Winner and current resident ensemble at The Music Institute of Chicago. He holds degrees from Lawrence University and Northwestern University.
Medal and Scholarship Sponsors

The Grand Prize Medal
Sponsored by Jeny and John Sejdinaj

Jeny and John Sejdinaj fell into the Fischoff quite unprepared for how much it would enrich their lives. The first year the Sejdinajs attended the competition, they sat in jaw-dropping wonder as ensemble after ensemble demonstrated their talent, artistry and enthusiasm. The performances were inspiring and the music came alive. Through the competition, educational outreach, mentoring and other projects, young classical musicians serve as ambassadors to this beautiful world. The future of classical music lies with these artists, Jeny and John are pleased to be able to encourage and honor them.

Senior Division Winds

Gold Medal – Senior Wind Division
Sponsored by The Georgina Joshi Foundation, Inc.

Through the vision of Georgina’s mother, Louise Addicott, The Georgina Joshi Foundation, Inc. was established in 2007 as a 501(c)(3) charitable foundation to, among other things, provide young musicians and singers with educational and career development opportunities and to encourage and support the public performance of music. Louise and her family have supported Fischoff programs for many years by opening their home to young musicians, hosting soirees and underwriting prizes and are pleased to continue this tradition.

Silver Medal – Senior Wind Division
The Dr. Lynne and Dr. Jenny Prize
Endowed by Lynne Stettbacher, M.D.

Of the Fischoff, Lynne says, “Not only does the Fischoff Competition provide a venue for talented musicians to upgrade a resume when applying to the nation’s finest music schools, when the competitors are part of the Winner’s Tour and Arts-in-Education Residencies, their programs for the schools expose community children to glorious music. Music is therapy. Without hearing classical music, how could one know what is available here on Earth? I so appreciate the framed photos of ‘my’ winners. They are on my apartment walls. I can gaze at them day and night and remember their performances. My sincere thanks to our judges, our volunteers, to each one who has helped to further the success of our very own event.”

Bronze Medal – Senior Wind Division
Sponsored by Pamela and James O’Rourke

Pam and Jim O’Rourke are pleased to underwrite the bronze medal for the Senior Wind Division of the Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition. Music has enriched their lives in so many ways, and Fischoff has made it possible for them to celebrate the extraordinary achievements of these young musicians, right here in our own community each spring. Congratulations to all of this year’s Fischoff performers.
Senior Division Strings

Gold Medal – Senior String Division
Sponsored by Mimi and Kevin Leahy

The Gold Medal for the Senior Strings Division is underwritten by Mimi and Kevin Leahy to promote the beauty of chamber music and to honor the talented musicians who enrich our world with élan.

Silver Medal – Senior String Division
Sponsored by the G. Burt and Charlotte Ford Fund for Fischoff

The life and memory of G. Burt and Charlotte Ford are being honored through the awarding of this medal. Both Char and Burt were devoted to good causes within our community. None was more important to them than Char’s work with Fischoff for so many years. It is with sincere gratitude that Fischoff honors the Fords in this way.

The Barbara Shields Byrum Senior String Bronze Medal
Endowed by the Barbara Shields Byrum Fund for the Fischoff National Chamber Music Association of the Community Foundation of St. Joseph County

The Senior String Division Third Prize is sponsored by Katie and the late Bill Shields and their daughter Barbara Shields Byrum. Michiana advocates for many years, Bill and Katie Shields undertook major leadership roles in numerous community initiatives, including the establishment of the Purdue School of Technology on the Indiana University South Bend campus. They also were instrumental in establishing health-related scholarships through the Community Foundation of St. Joseph County and the local hospitals. They funded the first Dean’s Endowed Chair at Indiana University South Bend, the William & Kathryn Shields Endowed Chair, College of Health Sciences. The Shields family is honored to support the artistic achievements of young chamber ensembles through Fischoff’s first endowed prize.

The Florence V. Carroll Junior Prize Division

First Place Scholarship
Sponsored by William Garber and Taylor Lewis

William Garber’s mother, Elizabeth “Betty” Rose Garber, was an educator for over thirty years mainly in the Southwest Michigan area public school system. Following retirement and the death of her late husband, V. Edward “Ed” Garber, Mrs. Garber today continues her commitment to helping both foreign and domestic students find the financial resources to fund their education. A competent classical pianist, Mrs. Garber loves great music. This year, we honor her for her unflagging commitment to the development of young talent in whatever field they wish to pursue.

Second Place Scholarship
Sponsored by Ann and Paul Divine

Ann and Paul Divine are honored to provide this prize scholarship to the winners of the Junior Division Silver Medal in recognition of the discipline and dedication each has shown to chamber music. Through their achievement, these musicians also pay tribute to their parents, teachers and coaches who have helped them reach the highest level of performance. Congratulations to the winners and to all those who have had a part in this great project.

Third Place Scholarship
Sponsored by Marijke, Price, Kirsten and Marc Niles

Marijke, Price, Kirsten and Marc Niles are sponsoring the Third Place Junior Division Prize to honor all past Fischoff participants, in particular the Juniors, for their enthusiasm and love for music. “We want to pay tribute to Fischoff’s musicians, who have given us such extraordinary inspiration in the many years we attended this very special competition,” says the Niles family. “We continue to follow with great pride the successes and great achievements of the Fischoff family. We encourage this year’s third-prize winner to always remember the pride you feel today and treasure your memories of the Fischoff Competition. We moved to Vermont, but Fischoff moved with us in our hearts... and the music plays on.”

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY

It takes more than just determination to be a performer.

It takes more than just practice.

You need someone who cares, a community that understands.

You need mentorship and guidance, someone to say,

"Try that again, but this time..."

At The Boston Conservatory, we have faculty to guide you, programs to support you, and a community of students and teachers who understand not only what it means to be a performer, but also what it takes.

This is The Boston Conservatory community.

Prepared to perform.

Emilia Romagna Festival is the largest area festival in Italy: an important moving force in the diffusion of mainly Classical Music, but also Jazz, World Music, Dance and Theatre. The festival's concerts are held in locations of considerable architectural or landscape value, almost none of which are classical concert locations. ERF is intended as a cultural journey at 360° where the performance enhance the location and vice versa, and both are means to attract the broadest and most diversified audience. ERF is an occasion to discover a marvellous region, its inner landscape and its rich cultural history.

An Evening with Martin Short!

On January 28, a packed house of friends and Fischoff supporters gathered at the DeBartolo Performing Arts Center to enjoy an extraordinary Evening With Martin Short.

A gala dinner with Mr. Short set the stage for a memorable evening of great music, acting and comedy. After dinner, guests moved into the Leighton Concert Hall, where 2011 Fischoff Competition prize winner, woodwind ensemble Arundo Donax, opened the show. Next, Martin Short took the stage and performed his one-man show with particular nods to the Fischoff and the South Bend community. Highlights included Martin Short’s “Jiminy Glick” character interviewing new South Bend Mayor Pete Buttigieg, and a musical encore with Arundo Donax and Martin Short playing turkey calls. A VIP post-party with more music and dancing rounded out this unforgettable evening.

Fischoff’s annual gala is our only major fundraising event, and this year’s gala was our most successful to date. Monies raised will ensure funding for the year’s entire Arts-in-Education Residencies. We extend our deepest appreciation to Gold Sponsors, PeopleLink and the University of Notre Dame, and to all sponsors and supporters. We also offer a special thank you to actor Martin Short, whose performance was his gift to the Fischoff. Thank you for your support!

The Fischoff National Chamber Music Association extends our deepest appreciation to the following for their help in making this evening a success.

(open 9 a.m. until 8 p.m.)

The Hammes Notre Dame Bookstore is graciously supporting the Fischoff by sponsoring a Benefit Day on Friday, May 11. Your purchase will generate funds for the Fischoff Competition. Bookstore hours are 9 a.m. – 8 p.m.

More than 35 years have passed since Joseph Fischoff and his musician friends began inviting neighbors to their homes to enjoy chamber music. Since then, soirées have become a popular springtime tradition in Michiana. Soirées began as intimate musical gatherings in the form of an evening party or reception in private homes. Guests are able to experience chamber music as it was intended to be heard—in relatively small spaces for small audiences. That tradition has expanded to include soirées in corporate settings, schools, and retail settings.

We are grateful for the tremendous generosity of our soirée hosts which enables the Fischoff National Chamber Music Association to present some of the talented ensembles that gather in South Bend for the Competition. Soirées are important to Fischoff not only because they provide a wonderful opportunity for the audience, but also because they help raise funds to support the Fischoff Competition.

We would also like to extend our sincere thanks to those ensembles who offered to perform at the soirées.

We’ll find a piano that’s right for you, and we’ll teach you how to play it.

Inspiring, Relaxing, Rewarding.

There’s no end to the way a piano enriches the lives of everyone who touches it. Only in a piano do you find so much beauty for the eye, the ear, and the soul. It’s the perfect touch for your home.
COMPETITION

Volunteers

One of the major strengths of Fischoff is our host of extraordinary volunteers. Without these dedicated friends, we would not be able to provide the personal care and attention to the talented young musicians who come to our community to compete.

We would like to thank Stephanie Scharf and Dr. David Taber for hosting the Calidore String Quartet, Yatish Joshi for hosting The City of Tomorrow and The New Trio, and Tish and Tim McBride for hosting Axiom Brass. Their generosity and hospitality was a delightful retreat for the ensembles and a tremendous help to Fischoff.

Thank you to the following 2012 Fischoff Competition Volunteers (the following were scheduled as of the program book deadline, April 25):

Where are they now?

eighth blackbird \ˈātth ˈblak-ˌberd\ slang (orig. and chiefly U.S.).
1. verb. to act with commitment and virtuosity; to zap, zip, sock.
2. adjective. having fearless (yet irreverent) qualities.
3. noun. a flock of songbirds, common in urban areas since 1996.

eighth blackbird lives dangerously. The Chicago-based, two-time Grammy Award-winning sextet combines the finesse of a string quartet with the energy of a rock band and the audacity of a storefront theater company. Its musical aerobatics delight, provoke and entertain audiences around the world.

eighth blackbird holds ongoing ensemble-in-residence positions at the University of Richmond and the University of Chicago, and will commence a three-year, Mellon Foundation-funded term as ensemble-in-residence at the Curtis Institute of Music in Fall, 2012. The ensemble has won two Grammy Awards for strange imaginary animals (Best Chamber Music Performance, 2008) and Lonely Motel: Music from Slide (Best Small Ensemble Performance, 2012).

During the 2011–12 season, eighth blackbird tours Australia twice, making debuts at the Sydney Opera House and the Brisbane Festival, and with the symphony orchestras of Melbourne and Tasmania. The ensemble plays in New York (SONiC festival), Kansas City, Ithaca and Mexico City. Schoenberg's Pierrot lunaire is presented at the Kennedy Center and the McAninch Arts Center. Chicago performances include a Reich-fest in Millennium Park, a premiere by Nico Muhly, Composition Competition finals, and a mini-festival at the Museum of Contemporary Art.

eighth blackbird today: Tim Munro, flutes; Michael J. Maccaferri, clarinets; Yvonne Lam, violin & viola; Nicholas Photinos, cello; Matthew Duvall, percussion; Lisa Kaplan, piano Fischoff and I lost a very good friend this year – Charlotte Ford. It happened so quickly. She was there and then she wasn’t. She left in such a hurry that we didn’t have adequate time to thank her for her tremendous support.

Char had an indelible effect on my life. I first met her when I joined the Fischoff staff in 1993. From that first day, she unknowingly mentored me. From Char I had the unique opportunity to observe a modern woman who lived most of her life in the 20th century but thoroughly relished the progress of the 21st century.

Char loved the idea of education and the possibilities it offered. She loved learning, was a voracious reader, and a champion of new ideas. I think that is why she so enjoyed the Fischoff organization, because its competition focuses on the great achievements of very young musicians. She found that exciting and important to our community and to the world.

I hope every one of the musicians at Fischoff has someone like Char in his or her life. If they do, I hope they will take the time to thank that person, but more importantly, return the favor by mentoring someone else.

Very early in my career, I found myself overwhelmed and scattered with the work of Fischoff and its endless possibilities. I was being tugged by many ideas and directions. Char looked me in the eye one day and said, “Just do what you’re doing.” I have never forgotten that. That one simple sentence put things in perspective. What a great gift. Thank you, Char!

Ann Divine
Executive Director
Fischoff National Chamber Music Association

Mentors are timeless.

The Fischoff is joining thousands of musicians and hundreds of concert presenters across the country this month in celebrating National Chamber Music Month. The Fischoff Competition is part of a nationwide initiative to raise public awareness of the many styles of small ensemble music performed and presented today.

Coming Events

- August 20–30, 2012: Calidore String Quartet, 2011 Grand Prize Winner, Emilia Romagna Festival, Italy
- October 19–28, 2012: Senior Division Gold Medalist Tours, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan
- January 2013: Winter Gala
- July/August 2013: Grand Prize Winner’s Tour, Italy, featuring the 2012 Grand Prize Winner

IMPORTANT COMPETITION DATES

- March 5, 2013: Deadline for entries into the 2013 Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition
- May 10–12, 2013: 40th Annual Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition
